

Charities that provide veterinary bill assistance

Armani's Angels www.armanisangels.org ---- Must contact prior to treatment; emergency, life-threatening illnesses, etc only

People Helping Paws www.peoplehelpingpaws.org ---- Bully breeds only 573-222-0115

Killuminati Foundation www.projectpuppy.org ---- Dogs only

The Mosby Foundation www.themosbyfoundation.org ---- Dogs only

The Onyx and Breezy Foundation www.onyxandbreezy.org ---- Must apply for care credit first and also submit tax return

Paws 4 a Cure www.paws4acure.com ---- Must apply prior to vet care/bill

The Pet Fund www.thepetfund.com ---- Must apply prior to vet care/bill

Shakespeare Animal Fund www.shakespeareanimalfund.org

Brown Dog Foundation www.browndogfoundation.org ---- No reimbursement/no ferals

United Animal Nations/Red Rover www.redrover.org ---- Assists with veterinary care for low income families and aids victims of domestic violence and their pets escape abusive situations together.

Feline Veterinary Emergency Assistance Program <http://fveap.org/> ---- Assistance for cats suffering from Vaccine Associated Sarcoma (VAS)

The Big Hearts Fund <http://bigheartsfund.org/> ---- Financial assistance for pets with heart disease

Diabetic Cats in Need <http://fdmb-cin.blogspot.com/> ---- Financial and rehoming assistance for diabetic cats

Canine Cancer Awareness <http://caninecancerawareness.org/> ---- For dogs undergoing cancer treatment

Magic Bullet Fund <http://themagicbulletfund.org> ---- For dogs undergoing cancer treatment

Handicapped Pets Foundation <http://hpets.org/> ---- Donates wheelchairs for pets in need

This is just a few of the local or major charities providing veterinary bill assistance. There are many other smaller charities, breed specific and disease specific charities in operation. A quick internet search may result in other charities that you and your pet may qualify for.